

L. P. Savani Academy Day Boarding

Class: IX

Month: July

This month of July was started with some constructive project. Children were looking forward to overcome their offset learning experiences of the school.

This month started with serious note on academic section. Mid of the month was the toughest time for students as they were now being assessed by Formative assessment and evaluated for their academics.

Students were relieved with their academic pressure as they were full of excitement for competition like Best out of waste, Mehandi competition and Aarti thali decoration which enhanced their creativity.

Students prepared PowerPoint presentation in English on various topics like article writing, poster writing, dialogue writing and story writing. They also performed skit on the topic of 'Modals'. They even explored by showcasing their competence by role play on famous personality in Hindi class.

These are the some activities showcased in the month of July. There are lot more in store to come up in august.
